

First Nations
Technical Services
Advisory Group

Sustainable Communities

SOLID WASTE MANAGEMENT TRAINING COURSES

Waste Asbestos Management & Handling

Course Objectives

- Identify the basic properties of asbestos as a raw material.
- Understand the basic properties of asbestos as an industry material and as a hazardous waste material.
- Understand the roles and responsibilities of all member of a work team.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the potential risks associated with the handling of asbestos.
- Recognize the hazards associated with mishandling of asbestos.
- Understand the operational and safety controls necessary to handle asbestos safely.
- Develop a method for creating a best practice standard operating procedure for final disposal of asbestos.
- Understand the importance of managing waste asbestos upon customer delivery.
- Become familiar with the Provincial Occupational Health and Safety as well as Alberta Environment regulations.
- Consider how these regulations impact your work regarding solid waste management.
- Demonstrate an understanding and recognize the importance of the required personal protective equipment.
- Understand and recognize the importance of communication within the continuous improvement cycle of exposure control.

Contact us

Phone: 780.483.8601 | Email: environment@tsag.net | Web: www.tsag.net | Facebook: www.facebook.com/FNTSAG